January updates from CESL

Apply to the Citizen Scholars Program!

CESL Opportunities

CESL Alumni Spotlight: Lauren DuBois
Her work with Student Bridges led directly to her current career as a 4-H Extension Educator in Springfield. Read more about Lauren's journey here!

Nuestras Raíces Service-Learning Opportunity: Community Farming & Food Security!
STOCKSCH 297NR: is a seminar on community gardening, food security, and sustainability. Work at Nuestras Raíces, a grassroots community

Register Now for Service-Learning Courses in Fall 2013!
Volunteer at a community organization, fulfill Gen Ed and Major requirements, and develop skills to work for social and political change. For a full list of

Spring Open House and Celebration on April 10th
Please join us for food and fun as we celebrate campus-community partnerships for civic engagement and service-
Serve your Community and Fulfill a GenEd requirement with EDUC 377!
Introduction to Multicultural Education is a service learning course with topics including sociocultural influences and biases in schools. You'll also tutor students in Holyoke.
See more service-learning geneds here!

CESL courses, see our website.

Tuition Too High?
New state legislation could provide a huge funding increase to UMass and keep tuition from rising. To learn more and take action, click this link.

We're on Facebook!
Don't miss out! "Like" us on facebook for important updates and info about upcoming events. Find us here!

follow on Twitter | friend on Facebook | forward to a friend

Copyright © 2013 UMass Amherst Civic Engagement and Service-Learning. All rights reserved.
You are receiving this email because you asked to receive information about community service-learning opportunities.

Our mailing address is:
UMass Amherst Civic Engagement and Service-Learning
611 Goodell Building, 140 Hicks Way
Amherst, MA 01003-9272

Add us to your address book

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences